JURY WILL DECIDE SANITY OF FALTIM

(Associated Press)
PHOENIX, Dec. 3.—William Faltin, whom Warden Sims, of the Florence penitentiary, refused to ahng last Friday, was today re-sentenced for execution on January 7, 1916. His sanity or insanity will be determined by a Pinal county jury, which meets on December 13th.

STATUS OF PROHIBITION TOLD BY STATES

KANSAS.—Under constitutional prohibition enacted in 1880. All political parties support the policy in that state. The law is drastic, requiring the report of the importation of all liquors for personal use to the county clerk, sending offenders to the penitentiary for the second offense, etc.

VERMONT.—Local option law was adopted in 1903. At March elections in 1915, 20 towns voted for license, 226 no license. Saloon licenses were taken out in 14 towns. Total majority in state against license 10,658. The legislature of 1915 passed a state-wide prohibitory referendum law to be voted on March 7, 1916. If adopted, it goes into effect May 1, 1916.

VIRGINIA.—Voted for prohibition in the fall of 1914. Law will not be passed until February, 1916, and will not go into effect until November 1, 1916. Eighty-four counties out of 100 are already dry.

OHIO.—The vote against state-wide prohibition in the election of 1914 was 84,251. In the election of 1915 the majority against the measure was 55,412.

SENTENCE DELAYED FOR THOSE WHO GAVE SUPPLIES TO GERMANS

(Associated Press)

S., today secured a delay of sentence in order to interpose motions to set aside the verdict or prepare an appeal. The maximum sentence on this charge is $1,000 fine and 2 years imprisonment.

COL. DORRINGTON YOUNGER EVERY DAY

Col. John W. Dorrington, pioneer editor of the Arizona Sentinel, who registers as over 21, told the Examiner today that he is getting younger, and that he hasn't felt so good since Judge Riley sued him for $25,000 libel, in 1878, ten years before the Yuma Times was born.

One of the real reasons the Colonel felt so good over was because he had just received an optimistic letter from his old-time friend, Col. J. H. McClintock, of Phoenix, advising him that since Colonel D. had lived many years longer than the average man, and had led a careful, sober life, he ought still be young and good for 40 years more.

How old would the Colonel be then? Mr. Dorrington not long since very strenuously protested because the Examiner said he had lived in Yuma for sixty years, thereby materially lessening his chances of catching a young wife. The Colonel was very considerate, however, and didn't sue us for libel—for which we are sincerely thankful, since to beat it, it would have been necessary to go before the state supreme court, which is very distasteful to all newspaper men.

Here's hoping you live to be 100, Colonel.

PUBLIC SPIRIT SHOWN; WHO WILL BE NEXT?

John Gandolfo, Sr., anticipating the traffic of tourists and ranchers over the new Warrenite road, decided to make a good showing of his property in West Yuma—Block No. 104, which lies between Second and Third streets, close to the point where the new highway begins. He has cleared and burned all the weeds, brush, etc., and the block now looks as clear as a billiard table. Now, if the city highway committee will only have the same thing done to the streets bounding this block, we will have a sure-enough demonstration of what public spirit really means.

BOY-ED'S CONNECTION WITH THE CONSPIRACY

(Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Secretary of State Lansing is understood to have informed Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, that Captain Boy-ed, the naval attaché of the embassy, has rendered himself persona non grata to the United States government as a result of his connection with the conspirators of the Hamburg-American line who were convicted yesterday.

This matter, it is understood, was the subject of discussion at a cabinet meeting today, after which Lansing flatly refused to answer any questions. Other members of the Cabinet were equally silent; and the German embassy also refused to talk.

The State Department is believed to be of the opinion that Boy-ed's admitted connection with the financing of the operations of the convicted steamship officials, left nothing else to do but inform Germany of its views.

George Cusenbury, the well known miner and prospector, returned last night from the Panhandle of Texas, where he made a long visit to one of his sons. He enjoyed his visit greatly in all respects except the weather. This he found too cold for him even in August and when the "norther" blew he was completely knocked out. Yuma sunshine for him hereafter.

"Do Your Christmas Shopping Early"

The above slogan in the hands of an astute business man, changed the whole practice of Christmas shopping and stimulated holiday business as nothing else could have done. This man, with the nerve of a Barnum and the judgment of a Wanamaker, grabbed the thought from the public mind and put it into big BLACK TYPE where "He who runs may read"—in the newspaper. He backed a popular conviction with his coin and advertised the universal belief that it would be better for everyone concerned if the inevitable Christmas purchases were made at once while stocks were fresh and new and the choice was wide and ample.

The result not only paid the advertiser, as it always does—but the whole country profited besides.

This slogan has since slipped into practical use in every corner of commercial America. Excepting perhaps its fellow slogan, "Safety First," which reduced the accident death rate enormously, it has done more good in the world than any business phrase ever coined. It has been the means of discontinuing the time honored practice among large metropolitan department and the specialty stores of keeping open in the evenings a week or two preceding Christmas Eve. It has enabled manufacturers to prepare their goods and fill orders far enough in advance to insure clear store rooms long before the Yuletide candles were lighted. It prevented the disappointment of millions of Christmas shoppers who were wont in times past to wait for the more attractive novelties which turned up at the last moment. And not the least important, it saved the heartaches of neglected ones who leant upon the broken reed of mere man's thoughtlessness.

That phrase, "Do your Christmas Shopping Early," was instantly taken up and flashed before the eyes of the world through the medium of its newspapers. Just as every other worthwhile thing is told this nation of readers by the ever present, constant, reliable, all-knowing morning, evening, weekly, or Sunday newspaper. Nothing the world does is done without ITS knowledge; nothing you want the world to know can be made known without its aid. Almost any national manufacturer will tell you that most of his fame and profit were the product of newspaper advertisements. No newspaper advertiser who kept it up wisely ever lost money.

The newspaper pays the advertiser. The later merely invests in business publicity. The cost of advertising is like a phantom Zeppelin, it never lights anywhere. It is a bugaboo made of thin air and a yellow streak. The common supposition that advertising expense is levied upon the consumer is likewise a fallacy. The fact of the matter is that the non-advertiser pays for it out of the business he loses to competitors who do advertise.

Advertising doubles output, halves overhead, divides selling cost and, by making two customers buy where ONLY ONE BOUGHT BEFORE, it then creates a hundred per cent increase in profit—out of which any business man can well afford to pay for his own advertising.

MORAL FOR MERCHANTS: Advertise in the Yuma Daily Examiner, and do your Christmas BUSINESS early.
